

DITEC GOL4/ DITEC BIX

The programming button on this remote control is located in the hole in the center of your remote so you need something like a paperclip to press it

Take a working remote control and stand next to your gate or garage door automation systems and press the secret button

Take your new remote and press any button you would like to program for a couple of seconds

Your new remote control is now programmed