

ALLDUCKS 6204

- Simultaneously, press and hold the buttons "on" and "off" of your new remote control
- The LED flashes, comes off then on again
- Release the buttons
- Your new remote control is now in learning mode
- Press the button on your new remote control that you want to program
- The LED comes on
- Release the button
- Enter your personal code by pressing 12 times the buttons on and off
- For every push, wait until the LED comes on then off. Release the button
- Create your own code
- Press both buttons of your remote control
- The LED flashes, comes off then on again
- Release both buttons
- Press the button you wish to program
- Enter the code by pressing 12 times on the on and off buttons
- Connect your new remote control to your receiver
- Press channel 1 of your receiver

- The LED comes on
- Then press continuously the button on your remote control while the LED of your receiver is on
- Wait until the LED of your receiver comes off then turns on again
- Release the button on your remote control
- Wait until the LED comes off
- Your new remote control is now programmed!